

Atmospheric air pollutant emissions in Québec, 2002

While many atmospheric emissions are released by natural sources such as forest fires, smog is primarily associated with human activity. Next figures presents the proportionnal repartition for the following pollutants : fines particules ($PM_{2,5}$), sulphur dioxyde (SO_2), nitrogen oxides (NO_x), de volatil organic compounds (VOC) and carbon monoxyde (CO).

